They charge NJAJE $5K to promote and they don't do it. Request was made to remove Jazz from this $5K fee.

Checked for SOPAC availability and awaiting more information

Vice President's Report – Mr. Haas

State Jazz Conference – Conference was a success. J. Binck filled in tremendously for Darmon Meader. We had good attendance. Alfred publishing is looking to get involved as are several other publishing companies. Jeff H wants to survey the needs or requests of attendees for the next conference.

Solo Etudes - They are up on the site. We are on solo #3 and there is 1 more to do with chord changes. Dr. Demsey conversed w/ Connecticut and recommended a resource from Kendor (a collection of Jazz Etudes)

Sponsor Efforts - Recently met with a colleague who will take over recruiting sponsors for the State Jazz Conference. Meet with new sponsors in February at NJMEA conference.

NJMEA Conference – We will start working on 2010 conference clinics and clinicians.

Secretary's Report – Mr. May (Dr. Kunkel)

Approval of Minutes – Minutes will be mailed

M. Anzuini will take care of changing the score sheets as per minutes of 10/13

Treasurer's Report – Mr. Krewer

Approval of Financial Statements to be done via email.

Honors Jazz Choir Report – Dr. Dohrmann

Honors Choir did perform last week for an NJEA MLK event. Rave reviews and acknowledgements. Justin did attend and Dr. Dohrmann took care of expenses. Discussion of regional jazz groups was entertained. D.May offered supporting comments toward Regional jazz vocal groups.

Jersey Jazzer Report – Mr. Anzuini

November mailing Sent to NJMEA cost $2,500 plus bulk mail permit fees.

Spring e-version – Do we want to continue with NJMEA mailing list. General consensus was NO. Spring mailing to be after Finals.

Webmaster's Report – Mr. Russo

Status of site – Contains all Audition Info. And 14 HS Jazz Festivals listed.

Historical information – C. Tumminia will have most of this information.
